ABOUT BSA ALLIED MEMBERSHIP

BSA Allied Membership connects your business to Greater Boston's architecture and design community. As an Allied Member, you can build relationships, showcase expertise, and increase visibility among 4,000+ architects, designers, and industry partners who shape the built environment.

Allied dues support the BSA's core work as a professional membership organization. Additional, tax-deductible gifts to the BSA Foundation help expand design education and civic engagement.

BSA ALLIED CORPORATE PARTNER ADD ONS

BSA Corporate Partnership Add-Ons build on Allied Membership by expanding your visibility and engagement within the professional architecture and design community.

Corporate Partners receive premium branding opportunities, discounted sponsorship rates for BSA flagship events, the ability to host educational and networking sessions, and invitations to a special Firm and Allied Members Mixer connecting you with architects and industry leaders.

Upgrading to Corporate Partnership positions your company as a supporter of professional practice while increasing your reach among the firms shaping the built environment.

Corporate Partners may also use the exclusive BSA Corporate Partner seal, signaling a trusted alliance with the Boston Society for Architecture.

NOTE ON TAX DEDUCTIONS

BSA Foundation events are conducted under a 501(c)(3) charitable organization. Contributions are generally tax-deductible under IRC §170, minus the fair market value (FMV) of any benefits received (such as tickets or advertising). The BSA Foundation will provide a disclosure for any contribution over $75 that includes benefits.

BSA/AIA events are conducted under a 501(c)(6) professional organization. Payments are not tax-deductible as charitable contributions but may qualify as ordinary and necessary business expenses related to the sponsor's trade or business.

This information is provided as general guidance only. Sponsors are encouraged to consult their tax advisor regarding the deductibility of specific contributions.
