

The City of Boston

PROCLAMATION

- Whereas, Boston is a city shaped by architecture, design, and planning, whose buildings, streets, and public spaces reflect its history while shaping its future; AND
- Whereas, Architecture and design play a vital role in advancing housing equity, climate resilience, accessibility, and vibrant public life across Boston's neighborhoods; AND
- Whereas, Since 1992, the Boston Society for Architecture (BSA) has provided free, accessible K-12 design education in and out of the classroom, helping young people understand the built environment and see themselves as active participants in shaping their communities; AND
- Whereas, Architecture Week, observed locally and nationally, brings together architects, designers, educators, students, and community members through workshops and public programs that celebrate design excellence, foster design literacy, and inspire future pathways into architecture and design; AND
- Whereas, The BSA and local partners across Boston collaborate during Architecture Week and throughout the year to foster creativity, design literacy, and pathways into architecture and design for future generations; NOW,
- Therefore, I, Michelle Wu, Mayor of the City of Boston, do hereby declare the week of April 12th, 2026 to be:

Architecture Week in the City of Boston

I urge all my fellow Bostonians to join me in honoring our architecture and celebrating the contributions which architects have made towards the betterment of the City of Boston.

MICHELLE WU
